Prayer of the day

Almighty God,
by the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ
you have broken the power of death
and brought life and immortality to light;
grant that we who have been raised with him
may triumph over all temptation
and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Revelation 1:4-8	C Noble	H Symons
John 20:19-31

The disciples locked themselves in the upper room because they were afraid of the Jews. How many times do we lock ourselves away in a confined space because we are afraid of those around us – afraid that if we say, act or in any way demonstrate our Christian beliefs and actions they 'might' not like it and might react negatively. This happens in our workplace, our recreation areas and even our own homes. We can hide from our fellows, but not Jesus – he will still come to us and bring his peace – a peace that is beyond our understanding.

Holy Week-Easter 2016

What a wonderful week of celebrations we had beginning with Palm Sunday and completing with Easter Day! We could not do this without the vast array of participation from everyone who makes these possible.

Thanks - for preparing the church, the Palm Sunday storytelling, for Mandy Stephens for leading the Tenebrae service, for the Easter Godly Play story, for Helen and the choir for uplifting singing on so many days and to Helen, Rodney, Robert and the other musicians. Thanks for all the practical stuff for the Easter morning service; for the Hall set up people; the Coordinators for arranging rosters, makers of crosses, to sides-people, the readers, the intercessors, the money handlers, the Communion Assistants and the Liturgical assistants. Thanks to the Easter Breakfast team. Thanks to Sandra for telling the gospel at Dawn. Apologises if someone has been forgotten, but there are so many involved. To repeat, what a wonderful week.
