Most of the time, Jesus' healing miracles are a result of someone coming to him and asking for healing – either for themselves or a family member. In the case at Nain no one approaches Jesus to ask for healing. Jesus just walks up to the bier and raises the son. Why? We are told that Jesus has compassion for the mother. We do not even know if the mother was a follower or not, but Jesus still showed his compassion. Jesus' compassion for us is always there, even when we do not pray for it. He is there for us in our times of strife, illness and grief. It is there even for those who do not believe (or at least do not openly indicate that.) We need to remember this and to help those who cannot recognize Jesus' compassion for all to realize that he is always there for everyone.

Pray for those who are mourning lost loved ones, that they may know that Jesus is there beside them in their grief.

Give thanks for the Church of Ceylon, which covers most of Sri Lanka, remembering their ministry in a multi-religious context.

"The Anglicare Auxillary" thanks parishioners for the support shown at last week's services. The speakers showed clearly the work of The Peaceful Warriors. $392 was raised for the auxillary to send into Anglicare. Winners of the raffle were Glenys Collis, Pat Ballard and Margaret Bentley. Damien took 6 bags of sewing to distribute at Lilydale Anglicare program leaders. And thank you specially those providing morning tea and to the kitchen staff after the services. The June lunch will be postponed and held latter in the year.

A reminder that there are several booklets in the church and hall with the instructions for the heating, cooling and lighting. They are easy to read and follow, so please familiarise yourselves with these simple instructions.

Fund raising -We would like to replace the old non matching pedestals. A quote from a local woodworker is to produce 3 pedestals to match the current furniture, one for the cross and two for flowers. Cost $600. Would you like to donate towards this? Please look at the proposed design on the notice board. Donations in an envelope welcome.

Parish Ladies Fellowship raised $565.00 for Cancer research at their Biggest Morning Tea last Tuesday. What a wonderful effort.
