'To the disciples, Jesus said to them privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see."'

Jesus had appointed and sent out seventy in pairs ahead of him. It was a life changing experience for them, because, when they returned to Jesus, they were joyous, exclaiming 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us.' These were not the apostles, but the 'foot soldiers' (the laity) sent to walk from town to town; taking a message of peace and performing 'deeds of power'; being both accepted and rejected. However their perseverance brought blessings.

Pray that as we are appointed to go on ahead of Jesus, we will have the perseverance to return with joy.

Give thanks for the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia, remembering especially the Church's Decade of Mission, 2016-2025.
