ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

St Margaret's Anglican Parish Eltham acknowledges the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation as the traditional custodians of the land on which we worship. We commit to working for reconciliation and justice for First Peoples. Diversity and inclusivity are important to us at St Margaret's. Everyone is welcome here, regardless of race,

ABM PEW REFLECTIONS

Duty seems a rather old-fashioned thing to talk about, though we have heard much about it recently in reference the late Queen. Some of us will be old enough to remember when we heard day by day, week by week Cranmer's post-communion prayer, beseeching God 'to accept this our bounden duty and service; not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offences'. Perhaps he had today's reading from St Luke on his mind as he wrote. As Christians our duty is to do what God asks of us. Happy are we if we can genuinely say 'We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!' for it is then that Jesus, our God who took on the form of a slave (Philippians 2.7), calls us his friends.

- Lord, help me to do my duty as a Christian.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand and Polynesia.

WORSHIP OCTOBER 2ND— FRANCIS AND CLARE—PET BLESSING SERVICE

SENTENCE

"Our task must be to free ourselves... by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole of nature and its beauty".

-Albert Einstein

THE BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS:

It is important to note that in the Scriptures the act of blessing means 'the imparting of power or life.' The blessing of each animal, by name, means that health, healing and life are being mediated from God for the benefit of the animal in its relationship with its human partners.

Shalom is one Hebrew expression of blessing.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Dear God, you love us through our precious animal friends.

Please bless them and help us to love and respect all your creatures. Amen.

GOSPEL

Mark 12: 13-16

TODAY'S MUSIC

Introit: Morning has broken—TiS 156

Offertory: All things bright and beautiful—TiS 135

Mission Hymn: Make me a channel of your peace—TiS 607

Prayer of the Week

Generous God,
whose hand is open to fill all things living with plenteousness:
make us ever thankful for your goodness, and grant that we, remembering the account that we must one day give, may be faithful stewards of your bounty;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
