ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

St Margaret's Anglican Parish Eltham acknowledges the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation as the traditional custodians of the land on which we worship. We commit to working for reconciliation and justice for First Peoples. Diversity and inclusivity are important to us at St Margaret's. Everyone is welcome here, regardless of race, gender, sexuality, or ability.

ABM PEW REFLECTIONS

There are people today, like the Greeks of the Gospel passage, who wish to see Jesus, they don't want to see church wardens, parish councils, bishops, priests or deacons. Still Jesus relies on his followers, us, like he relied on Philip and Andrew to bring others to see him. One of the hallmarks of being a mature disciple, apart from being fed on solid food, skilled in righteousness and trained to distinguish good from evil, is our readiness to introduce others to Jesus.

- God, help us to be mature disciples that show Jesus to others by our love, actions and speech.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Melanesia.

Prayer of the Week

Lent V

We thank you, heavenly Father, that you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son:
we pray that
as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his presence abiding in us he may raise us
to joys eternal;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FAITH ISSUES DISCUSSION

All parishioners and friends are invited to Faith Issues Discussion on Monday 18 March at 7.30pm in the church.
Refreshments follow. Transport can be arranged.

The discussion will be led by Geoff Sandy and the title is-Mary Mother of Jesus. It includes some questions like -Who was Mary? Was she an historical figure? How important is she to your faith? Has modern church dogma lost sight of who she really is/was?

Everyone welcome. Each discussion is a one-off with a series very rare.

Prayer for Lent

My choice of a Poem for Lent is 'Lent,' a short poem written about 1886 by the English poet Christina Georgina Rossetti (1830-1894).

We are more likely to associate Christina Rossetti with Christmas rather than Lent because her poem 'In the Bleak Midwinter' has become one of the best-loved and most popular Christmas carols.

Lent*, by Christina Rossetti

It is good to be last not first,
Pending the present distress;
It is good to hunger and thirst,
So it be for righteousness.
It is good to spend and be spent,
It is good to watch and to pray:
Life and Death make a goodly Lent
So it leads us to Easter Day.

Peace and all good

Revd Yvette

Prayers for Head Sacristan.

Last week, I shared with our church community that after 28 years of faithful ministry as the head Sacristan of St Margaret's church; Jean Taylor has now chosen that it is now time for her to retire.

Therefore, as a church I now ask that we pray for someone or 'couple' to discern if God maybe nudging them towards this ministry.

Some of the duties include –

- Being in charge of the sacristy and all that is in it;
- Ensuring that all items needed for the various services during the liturgical year is ordered and available;
- Ensuring the alter is adorned correctly;
- Vestments are kept in good order;
- Work with the clergy team on services – such as occasional offices.

The sacristan is someone who tends to work diligently behind the scenes to ensure that all the church services run smoothly and accordance with our Anglican tradition and that of St Margaret's church.

If you wish to find out more please speak with Jean or myself.

Jean has generously offered to be alongside the newly appointment sacristan to guide and support them in their new ministry and training will also be given.

I ask that we hold Jean in prayer at this time and thank our Lord for all that she has done and will continue to do amongst us.

Peace and all good

Revd Yvette

Grace

Go before us, O Lord, in all our doings with your most gracious favour,
and assist us with your continual help;
that in all works, begun, continued and ended in you,
we may glorify your holy name,
and finally by your mercy
obtain everlasting life;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
