ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

St Margaret's Anglican Parish Eltham acknowledges the Wurundjeri people of the Kulin nation as the traditional custodians of the land on which we worship. We commit to working for reconciliation and justice for First Peoples. Diversity and inclusivity are important to us at St Margaret's. Everyone is welcome here, regardless of race, gender, sexuality, or ability.

ABM PEW REFLECTIONS

The Psalmist assures us that knowing Christ's presence takes away shame and brings refreshing, gladness and peace. Today we are reminded that Jesus stood among his disciples and helped them to see his truth. As his witnesses, we stand among others who are disbelieving and still wondering and we show them the presence of the risen Jesus in the world through our transformed lives.

- Lord, help us to welcome your transforming presence in our lives and give us the courage to make you visible to a suffering world.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Primate of the Anglican Church of Australia, the Most Rev Geoff Smith

Lord of life,
by submitting to death, you conquered the grave;

Introducing the Home Communion Team

Home Communion (also known as Sick Communion) is part of a church community's regular pattern of pastoral care in which authorised or licensed lay or ordained ministers take communion to individuals in their homes or care facility.

When church members and other parishioners cannot attend a service in church through illness or other incapacity St Margaret's home communion team will take church to them!

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome two new members of the team; Sandra Brown-Holt and Barbara Speed whilst thanking Helen Robertson, Harry Watson, Chris Winkett and Adrienne Watson for their long standing ministry in this area.

We are now in the process of comprising a list of communicates. If you or your loved one would welcome home communion, I would be grateful if you could let the office know or myself by Monday 22nd April please. Communicates may either require this ministry short term or long term- but if it is not for yourself, please ask permission first.

NB. If you or someone you care for is unwell in hospital – I will gladly attend the hospital to offer prayer and anointing.

Peace and all good

Revd Yvette

Morning Tea Roster

St Margaret's Needs You!

As we know – worshipping together is wonderful on Sunday mornings and also sharing in being community after the service at morning tea. However, we are very short on numbers for those who can give of their time to serve and clean up after the 10am service.

Ideally, we need 4 extra people to share in this ministry.

If you are interested, please speak with Coralie in the next few weeks so that a new rota can be drawn up for the month of May onwards.

With thanks

Revd. Yvette

Living the resurrection life

In my sermon on Sunday, I asked you:

- Have you ever wondered what it means to live in the resurrection!
- What does it mean for you as a disciple?
- How has it changed your life since Easter day?
- How are you living differently because of it ... if -at - all?

Below are three bible verses (NRSV) to help you ponder on these questions further. Meditate on them, write what is revealed to you and share your revelations with each other.

Go well this Eastertide.

Revd Yvette

John 11:25

Jesus said ..., "I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live.

1 Corinthians 15:21

For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being.

Romans 6:8-11

But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die again; death no longer has dominion over him. The death he died, he died to sin, once for all; but the life he lives, he lives to God. So you also must consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Edendale Farm Repair Café Survey

We are collecting community feedback around the feasibility of running a Repair Café at Edendale Farm. A Repair Cafe is a place where community volunteers help to repair items that community members bring in to repair. Repair Cafes are usually held monthly throughout the year. We want community members to get excited about it and to get on board to help create this community run initiative. Do you have 5-10min to share your feedback with us? If so please find a link to the survey here: Edendale Farm Repair Cafe survey \(surveymonkey.com\)

If you have any questions feel free to ask.

Thanks and kind regards
